

ARIES

2012 Monthly Forecasts

January

A stronger need for personal freedom takes hold this month, dear Aries. You rebel against any feeling of being caged or enmeshed in routines, rules, and regulations. You are putting more faith in your instincts and your judgment. The result is more spontaneity and possibly more adventure or risk-taking in your life than there has been recently. You are more assertive now as well, and your ability to trust your intuition is heightened. Ideas are flowing and you express them more freely in January. Some of the problems that have recently stumped you now find resolve. The 15th is strong for making solid plans or commitments with a partner. You may be asked to speak out on the 19th-20th. The Full Moon this month can bring financial revelations or news. Financial and love matters find more clarity after the 18th.

February

You are valuing your privacy more than ever, dear Aries. You are certainly more withdrawn than usual, taking extra time to rest and reflect. This is necessary right now, and if you don't do it on your own, the cosmos might force you to do so! Nevertheless, friends are mostly supportive. Coming to the aid of a partner feels good now, as does being in on a special secret. You have been analyzing many aspects of your life, including love, but by mid-March, you will be feeling more directed and re-energized.

March

You are certainly regaining your confidence this month, dear Aries. While the changes may not be dramatic, they are definitely indicating that you are moving forward and coming out of your shell. You have been more introspective recently and you are building towards a rather exciting and action-packed spring and summer. Decisions are coming to you more clearly, plans are straightening out, and your romantic life is less confused. You know your position. Excellent days for good favour, partnering, and personal appeal are the 7-31, but especially the 7-8, 16-17, and 20-21.

April

This month will be a very pleasant for you, as everything seems to fall into place, and those around you are at peace. Do not let the hectic times of the holiday get to you, because you are strong and you can adapt. Your love life will be looking up for those of you who are single, look to people you work with, there is a co-worker that has their eye on you. Dreams you have this month will border on prophetic.

May

Change is on the horizon, dear Aries, and a spiritual revelation or attitude breakthrough occurs in May that propels you along a new path this spring and summer. Adventure, travel, and higher learning call to you. You are setting your sights on the future instead of worrying about the past, and setting your sights high! There may be unexpected events that free you from confining situations. Financial concerns and mix-ups lift by mid-month, when a new budget will be helpful. You are ready to pursue romance and to take the lead.

June

Your love life is certainly exciting this month, dear Aries, and you're feeling especially amorous and affectionate, ready to go out on a limb for love. Your confidence runs high in general, and the desire to break free from restricting or limiting circumstances is strong. Work picks up pace, and there can be some struggle between the demands of family and home and those of your career and professional responsibilities. It's an exceptionally busy month for you, and you will be doing a balancing act as a result.

July

You are spirited and enthusiastic this month, dear Aries, feeling personally on top of your game. You are reinventing yourself, and while this fact doesn't always go over well with a partner, it's something you have to do. You could be seeing a partner as holding you back from discovering yourself. Some of you could be feeling lonely, whether you are partnered or not. However, your enthusiasm for self-discovery is undeniable. Family matters are in the spotlight in July. Changes in the organization of your home or with family members may be in order mid-month. Something has to change. The 8-10 could bring some disappointments in love, but nothing you can't handle. Work is super busy and you're pouring a lot of energy into keeping a fast-paced daily routine, tending to health and fitness, and zipping through work projects. You may be in the position to prove yourself on the job. Some paranoia about your position could figure now. Intellectual companionship is easy to find this month.

August

Relationships are dynamic this month, dear Aries. The need for structure in a partnership becomes clear, especially around the 8th. The 9th brings exciting new energy for romance and creativity. Take advantage! Avoid shortcuts on the job, especially from the 20th, or you will definitely need to redo your work. Attraction to older or more mature partners is possible this month, as you reassess your relationship needs. Problems that have existed in a partnership come to light and need immediate attention. Partnerships can be on the competitive side, but you are likely to appreciate that matters are out in the open so that they can more easily find resolution. Career matters can be competitive as well, and you might feel a little stressed that you don't have enough energy to tend to domestic concerns. A past love may step forward around the 20th, but save decision making for later. A secret is revealed or something hidden comes to light around the 24th.

September

Work keeps you on your toes this month, dear Aries, but your personal life doesn't take a backseat. While there can be complications with work (delays and perhaps re-doing of tasks) that have you feeling like you're not making much progress for all the effort put forth, by mid-month, things are running much more smoothly. Love matters are becoming a little complicated as well, but pleasantly so. Romance intensifies and passions run deep, especially around the 12th and 18th. Your desire for depth experiences on an intimate level is strong. Regarding finances, your attention turns to shared resources, debts and loans, and perhaps taxes. Creative thinking will help bring balance to this area of life. You are thinking a lot about health and nutrition matters, and September is a good month for researching new strategies for improvement. Career matters become clearer after the 13th, and certain work projects move forward. Surprising events and changes occur to your inner world around the 18th. Intuition is heightened, particularly regarding matters that have been holding you back from growing. The 23rd brings personal revelations.

October

Relationships make headlines for you this month, dear Aries. Strong energy for relating is with you now, although some complications are likely as well. You may be rethinking your needs or those of a partner and dealing with debts from the past. Take your time and don't push matters. Go over your finances carefully, get counsel if needed, and avoid disputes over money. Fortunately, your negotiation skills are at their best and you'll receive helpful and practical advice, especially around the 19-20. Going it alone is not necessary now.

November

Your personal influence and charm skyrocket this month, dear Aries. It's a great time to ask for exactly what you want! Benefits from doing behind-the-scenes work arrive this month, and past efforts are rewarded. Travel, promotion, or publishing could figure in your career and benefit you. You have more faith in your profession and the direction in which you are headed. Support from family is forthcoming. A friendly connection can be made with someone who lives far away. The last week brings an intimate revelation and expansive love feelings.

December

Do not hesitate to help elders with legal documents that are too confusing for them. Plans to make physical improvements may lead to psychological changes, too. You may find yourself in a romantic situation. Your passionate nature may make you jealous if your mate has been too busy to take care of your needs. Your luckiest events this month will occur on a Friday. Work is very rewarding this month, dear Aries, yet you still manage to find ways to break the routine. You are very busy expanding your horizons, whether it's through actual travel or armchair travel. At times, you may come across as opinionated, but it's more likely enthusiasm for sharing your thoughts. Romance is to be found when you are enjoying non-routine activities. December presents a nice balance of recognition and accomplishment, as well as recreation and love. A stellar romantic opportunity occurs on the 4-6, and professional rewards arrive in the last week.
