

LEO

2012 Monthly Forecasts

January

Romantic and creative activities heat up this month, dear Leo. You are considerably bolder this month after a period of introspection. Your zest for life and your tendency to take risks - emotional, romantic, and creative - increase. Of course, you might want to control your purchases, as you may be overconfident now. Romance is more passionate and stimulating, although the increased energy can also lead to some strife. Competitive endeavours thrive. Financial matters, particularly those shared with a partner or money sources other than your basic income, become clearer and move forward. The 15-16 brings better energy for all money and practical matters. Family life improves dramatically later this month, which helps you to let your hair down and enjoy yourself without guilt.

February

Your popularity runs high this month, dear Leo, even though you continue to keep some emotional distance. Those close to you, however, are likely to sense that you are not as enthusiastic and direct as usual, but it's a necessary period in which you take a step back and analyze what works for you and what doesn't. Your ego is completely tied up in your success with others just now, and this means you are especially attentive to the needs of loved ones. Good luck, particularly with finances, is likely on the 13-15 and 27-28.

March

After some months of introspection and perhaps hesitancy, dear Leo, you are regaining confidence. You are figuring out what it is you want, personal plans are beginning to move forward, and your decision-making ability is now back on track. It's easier to find support from others, and for some of you to obtain or manage loans, particularly from the 14-16, when you are pleasantly surprised by the help you receive. The people in your life are generous with their time and energy, and their happiness ricochets back to you.

April

A total accident at work ends up being one of the best things that you could have done! This will not make sense to you until it actually happens. This month you acquire a secret admirer, and this secret admirer means business! If you are married this could be trouble, however if you are single, this may be what you were waiting for. Your dreams this month will be of a warning nature that has to do with something physical.

May

Career and professional interests are strong this month, dear Leo. Mix-ups or delays lift by mid-month, and you are back on track. New ideas are abundant, and your energy levels run high. Some form of tug of war when it comes to finances could be irksome in May, but clearing up financial matters will do wonders for your outlook. Friendships are especially rewarding this month, and new feel-good connections can be made. Some of you will be meeting new romantic interests or experiencing a rejuvenation of romance in existing relationships.

June

Love is exciting and perhaps a little exotic for you this month, dear Leo. Certainly, you are experiencing inner stirrings that prompt you to explore on a romantic level, whether that means spicing up an existing relationship, taking it to a whole new level, or meeting a romantic partner for singles. Some changes on the work front and in your domestic life seem necessary now. You may be dealing with some power struggles that now come to a head. From mid-month, your personal magnetism is especially strong.

July

Rest is in order for the first three weeks of July, dear Leo. You're not exactly putting everything on hold, but you are taking more time for yourself to recharge. You may be talking ahead of yourself now, about things that you are not quite certain about. Financial worries that may have been plaguing you are lessened considerably. You're feeling significantly more confident about your money-making abilities this month. The 8-10 can bring some disappointments and the 24-27 some seeming setbacks to plans, particularly those revolving around love, learning, and travel. These challenges are temporary and handling them with confidence brings you to a stronger and more mature position. You're going to be the rock that others lean on in the coming months, and you enjoy this position! While love remains exciting, what you might have thought was out of this world might now seem only "good", but once again, this improves your position and keeps you realistic. Friends find their way to you in July, and career matters are very strong.

August

Making contact and getting in touch with others, learning, and teaching are all especially important matters to you this month, dear Leo. You're more communicative than usual, enjoying sharing your ideas and catching up with friends. You are interested in improving your skills and expanding your mind. Contact with others can help jumpstart your creativity this month. Some of you could meet a new love interest while taking part in classes, group discussions, communicating online, and other forms of networking. Money requires extra attention from the 20th. Avoid taking shortcuts with your finances after this date. Go over everything carefully before making large purchases and other important financial decisions. Waiting for a later date might be best, because you could find that the urge to splurge passes. The 9th brings fresh energy and a go-ahead for personal projects. It's your New Moon, and it's time to bring on a whole new and fresh attitude. Others are taking note, not only of your sunny personality, but particularly of your ideas.

September

Getting your finances in order is in focus this month, dear Leo. Financial matters become more defined and clear by the 14th, as do practical concerns and work matters. Projects that have been delayed now begin to move forward. Intuition runs high from the 8-12th, but putting plans into action should be saved for the 14th and beyond. Developments in the financial or emotional support you receive, whether it's through loans, the resources of a partner, or other types of help, are quick and surprising. You might find yourself in a situation of sharing or pooling your resources with a partner. Alternatively, this can be a time of sudden insights and opportunities for emotional renewal or healing that give you a sense of power and self-mastery. By mid-month, love becomes less communicative in a superficial sense and more about passion and feelings that run so deep that they're hard to describe. Some of you will be meeting new romantic interests or experiencing a rejuvenation of romance in existing relationships.

November

An adventurous month is in store. Although your work is important this month, you find ways to break the routine. Nevertheless, you derive more enjoyment from your job this month, dear Leo. Others recognize your talents. Health is likely to prosper this year in general and in particular now. You are in good spirits and you enjoy lively debates with others. Wonderful opportunities come your way on the 20-21, when you receive a bonus or promotion, financial backing, or other support that boosts your feeling of security.

October

The month ahead is a busy one, dear Leo, with much emphasis on communications, learning, and family interactions. Making a fresh start with a neighbour or sibling is possible this month. Tensions are possible around the home, however, especially if you are coming across as too bossy in your attempts to take charge. Channel your energy into constructive work around the house, particularly independent tasks. Financial backing is more likely to come now for home improvement endeavours. There are plenty of errands to run and much paper work to handle.

December

Exhaustion combined with overindulgence could result in minor health problems. Be prepared to take advantage of your good fortune. You will be able to get good advice if you listen to close friends or relatives you respect. Try not to make waves. Your luckiest events this month will occur on a Sunday. The first three weeks of December are exciting and stimulating for you, dear Leo. This is a decidedly romantic and creative period for you. You have special magnetic appeal, extra energy, and a real yen for excitement now. Creative Leos will be on a roll, producing more than ever, and publishing opportunities may be forthcoming. The last week of December features a job offer or opportunity, possibly a work-at-home endeavour. Don't wait until the New Year to make resolutions regarding health and fitness the time is now
