

AQUARIUS

2012 Monthly Forecasts

January

Your instincts for finances improve this month, dear Aquarius, and you might enjoy a pay or income increase. Career and professional matters are in strong focus, and you're ready to take charge of this area of your life. Your reputation improves after the 18th, when you bring more warmth to your professional manner. The 20-21 can bring a career project to a head. Your social life is very busy throughout November. Teamwork is emphasized, although there can be some strife with friends if you are pushed into the background or you are unable to set your own pace socially. Conflicts are lessened if you take the lead and work towards a common goal with others. Romantic opportunities might present themselves through your friends or group associations.

February

February is a strong month for finances and personal possessions for you, dear Aquarius. You could receive a gift, rebate, refund or loan, especially around the 13-15 and 28th. Others are really in your corner this month, paying you much attention. While relationship problems are still part of your life, those of you involved in casual relationships are finding many opportunities to enjoy yourselves and singles are not lacking for attention, either. This is a strong period for creative projects and endeavours. Mid-month is a powerful period for feeling a sense of inner renewal and for hopefulness.

March

Focus continues to be on finances, possessions, comfort, and practical matters this month, dear Aquarius. Pleasant financial surprises may be in store on the 15-17. March is a strong month for taking charge of your finances and for monetizing creative projects or hobbies. Studies, learning, communication, and transportation matters are moving forward after the 10th, when you will be feeling more mobile, cheerful in attitude, and communicative. After a few months of some confusion or lack of clarity in your love life, relationships begin to regain momentum.

April

You have a very hard time expressing your thoughts this month, and are becoming very frustrated. Try to express some patience to the ones that you love, they are not as dense as you think they are. You're just a little high strung, and you'll wind down towards the end of the month. Your love life is going to be looking up shortly, but there will be no dramatic changes in at this month. Pay attention to your dreams, they will be very hard to remember, but they will have a prophetic meaning. These dreams will be primarily about your love life.

May

Important group connections and friendships come along suddenly this month and next, dear Aquarius. Conversations with friends and acquaintances can be eye-opening, propelling you along a new path of discovery in the coming months. Financial concerns and possibly even battles may challenge you this month. Straightening out domestic problems will also be necessary, and this sets the stage for pleasant relations with family and a more organized home life in the second half of the month. Energy runs high for romance, entertainment, and recreation in May. A partnership is animated and spirited.

June

A feel-good month is in your forecast, dear Aquarius. You are feeling especially enthusiastic, creative, and generous. A new friend may be part of the picture. New insights and developments in learning areas, studies, with siblings, or in activity surrounding the communications industry can be had in June. Inspiration can be found now, and it's likely to come through your conversations or communications with others. Wonderful energy for love relationships is with you this month. Changes on the work front may be necessary in the last week of June.

July

Work and love are strong themes for you this month, dear Aquarius. You are very busy taking care of day-to-day affairs, work projects, and health matters. You are called upon to deal with the details and practical side of everyday life, to become more organized, and to take charge of your routines. It's time to formulate some clear goals and plans that get you back on track physically and mentally. Very good energy is with you regarding a partnership. While a little more patience is necessary, you are willing to listen and give support. You are entering a cycle in which you feel you are on solid ground. This comes as a relief after a long period of self-doubt and confusion about your long-term goals. Exciting new interests continue to motivate and stimulate you. Your heart is on your sleeve in the last week of July. Personal needs that have been neglected come up for attention and can no longer be ignored! Communication problems are very likely in the last two days of the month. Take care with your words and actions.

August

It's not the strongest month for decision making, dear Aquarius. You might be leaving it up to a partner or good friend to take the lead for the time being. It's a time for rethinking and reviewing rather than moving forward with new plans and initiatives. Letting others take the spotlight seems to be your best bet. Your ruler, Uranus, is retrograding back into Pisces this month, and while symbolically this might point to a feeling of backtracking, it's more likely that you are looking back for the time being, rather than pushing forward. Exciting changes are on the horizon, and this is a good period for tidying up and getting in touch with what you truly want from your life. However, your personal magnetism is strong this month and others are very cooperative. If you're interested, you'll find that it's easy to attract others to you, particularly with your unique opinions and personal philosophy. The urge to expand your mind through education or possibly travel is strong, and opportunities to do so seem to be falling into your lap now. Finances require special handling in the last week of the month.

September

Your ruler, Uranus, is back in Fish in the New Moon, as well in a Put down gravel Trine to Mars and the Enlightenment and square to Jupiter, the largest planet! You wanted is coming it all and it! Career mean and appear financial freedom, but is a breath and with Full Moon, the ruler now direct! Go to the realization of your dreams. You are in a power struggle cycle that will last until May 2012! Ups and downs carefully by the going around with those who spew absolute! Remain on course! September brings intensity of feeling and a stronger desire to investigate life, dear Aquarius. Some of you could be especially into research of some sort, and from the 14th forward, you are pouring much energy into work projects and other professional activities. Your personal magnetism runs high, and you're likely to find much support and personal popularity in your career or community. From mid-month, going after what you want, whether it's a promotion or an idea you are pushing, is especially favoured. Jupiter aligns with your ruler, Uranus, again this month, bringing a hopeful attitude, beneficial connections through networking efforts, and improved financial status. There may be a sudden change in financial position, even a windfall or significant gift, a sudden urge to spend or invest money, a new money-making idea or project that seems to come out of nowhere, new insights into money, money-making ability, or self-worth. Money might be seen now for its value as a tool used to achieve more freedom in your life. Problem solving comes far more easily to you by mid-September.

October

Increased visibility and accountability are likely in October, dear Aquarius. What you do and say has more impact than usual, so be on your best behaviour. Some of you are travelling or taking on more physical activities. Professional matters capture most of your time, however, and the need to set your own pace is strong. If not, you could be feeling a lot of pressure. Don't take on more work than you can handle, as enthusiastic as you are feeling. News from a friend or about travel plans around the 22nd is good.

November

You are likely to discover resources that you never knew you had this month, dear Aquarius. Help seems to be there when you need it, quite magically. Imaginative undertakings could boost your income in November. You are especially good at mediating conflicts now. Smoothing over differences using your diplomacy skills finds a solution. A career revelation is likely to occur around the time of the Full Moon. Work matters capture your attention. Good news arrives on the 21-22, and a romantic opportunity arises on the 27th.

December

Someone you live with may cause drastic alterations in your usual routine. Older family members may take advantage of you by making you feel guilty. Your time, not your cash, will do a lot more for your relationship. You may be fortunate while travelling. Your luckiest events this month will occur on a Wednesday. December is ripe with opportunity for envisioning new projects and goals for your future, dear Aquarius. Friends, acquaintances, and groups will certainly keep you busy. Romance, however, is mostly quiet until after the 7th, when Venus, the goddess of love, enters your sign and stays there into the New Year, bestowing beautiful energy for attracting what and who you want into your life. It's a mostly easy month, save for some impulsive energy mid-month, when overspending or speculation could be costly.
