

PISCES

2012 Monthly Forecasts

January

A mostly feel-good month is in store for you, dear Pisces. Both your rulers, Jupiter and Neptune, turn direct this month, pointing to increased confidence, energy, and clarity. You have a lot of energy for career matters. You are motivated to make money and you feel, for the most part, on top of your game. If you are able to set your own pace when it comes to work, you are at your happiest. If tied to routine or eclipsed by others, you might stir up some negative energy that leads to complications or conflicts professionally, however. Try to find ways to work independently without causing friction for doing so. You are enthusiastic about your beliefs and wear your ideas with confidence and authority this month.

February

February starts slowly but quickly picks up speed midway through, dear Pisces, when you'll experience lots of activity and attention. Gifts, refunds, or rebates may be forthcoming now. Although it's a strong time for career and business opportunities in general, there are some snags to deal with when it comes to work schedules. You might also be losing some enthusiasm for work, and going through the motions, which should change by mid-March. You receive good news and vibes on the 13-14, and a partner gives you a boost on the 28th.

March

March is an energizing month for you, dear Pisces. Others are paying special attention to you and the feedback is good! You are beginning to feel more confidence about money making abilities and your work, and this confidence will only increase in the next few months. You are getting into a more practical routine that helps you to feel grounded and enthusiastic about the future. New Moon energy from the 15-17 gives you a boost. You feel that you can easily shed the unproductive or unhealthy attitudes that have been weighing you down.

April

Try not to step into the limelight this month, because it is not a good place for you to be. Be careful with secrets, both giving them and getting them. This is also a good month to be very mindful of security, and every instance that it presents itself in your life. Keep a close watch on your finances and be careful that you do not overspend, because it will be very easy to do so this month.

May

Career opportunities are likely to arise this month and next, dear Pisces, quite possibly of the behind-the-scenes variety, or involving online endeavours. Energy for improving your skills and getting projects going runs extremely high this month, so take advantage. While pushing yourself too hard will never work to your benefit in the long run, taking some extra time to tend to projects that have been on hold will be fulfilling. Troublesome or mixed up communications are likely to clear up by mid-month. Love opportunities increase dramatically from the 19th forward.

June

Excitement is likely to revolve around finances and possessions for you this month, dear Pisces. There might be a sudden change in financial position, even a windfall or significant gift, a sudden urge to spend or invest money, a new money-making idea or project that seems to come out of nowhere, or new insights into money, money-making ability, or self-worth. Money might be seen now for its value as a tool used to achieve more freedom in your life. Home and family life is busy, and love relationships especially stimulating.

July

You are finding your inner muse, and making a fresh start on a creative level. Some of you will experience a new beginning in a romance. Although your love life is likely to be changeable, good things are happening and others are finding you especially easy to be around. The harder lessons you have been learning about relationships and from others in recent years are wrapped up this month. A new level of maturity is with you. Romance is full-on in July, with lively conversations and much stimulation. Any recent problems in relationships are aired in July. Fortunately, you have all the skills at your disposal to iron out differences. Finances are still hopeful but circumstances are such that you must face a few realistic points and get over some hurdles before confidence comes to this area of life. Sources of income may seem limited for the time being as they are shuffled around.
